

THE IMPACT OF STUDENT LOAN DEBT: Examining the Burden and Finding Solutions

Wednesday, October 13, 2021 | 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Eastern

Summary:

On the back of the recent student loan debt survey done in coordination with Morning Consult, NAR is hosting a policy forum discussing student loan debt, the current crisis, effects on the economy and the housing market, effects on certain debt holders, and solutions for the future. The virtual event will feature a deep dive into the survey itself from NAR's Jessica Lautz, followed by brief presentations from speakers and experts on the student loan debt crisis and a Q&A led by Bryan Greene.

Format/Agenda:

Opening Remarks

- Bryan Greene, Vice President, Policy Advocacy

Presentation of the Student Loan Debt Survey

- Jessica Lautz, Vice President, Demographics and Behavioral Insights

Presentations on The Impacts of Student Loan Debt and Solutions

- Rachel Fishman, Deputy Director for Research, Higher Education, New America

Question & Answer (Led by Bryan Greene)

To Register:

https://realtors.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_ym09b-p4Qa29Bwujs-wQzg

When:

Wednesday, October 13, 2021
11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Eastern

Where:

Zoom: Meeting will be held virtually.

Audience:

REALTOR® Membership of all fifty states and U.S. territories will be invited to participate in this event, as well as Hill and staff from the Biden administration.

